Coopselios acquires the company Esedra from Cirfood, which manages nursery schools in Brussels

Reggio Emilia, 03/27/2019 - Coopselios has acquired from the catering company Cirfood the entire participation of the company Esedra, which for several years has been dealing with educational and pedagogical services aimed at early childhood through the management of nurseries and schools for children of Commission and European Parliament officials in Brussels.

The company, which has recently been awarded 4 private nursery schools for another 6 years for a total of 280 children of the European Commission employees from 0 to 4 years of age, has also managed 4 after-school programs in various European Parliament locations for about 400 children aged 6 to 11 years. Esedra has about 110 employees including educators, coordinators, pedagogists and administrative staff.
